(“LPL Holdings”). A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Exhibit 99.1 shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities under that Section and shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference into any filing of the Company under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 7, 2017, LPL Holdings and certain of its subsidiaries entered into a purchase agreement with the representatives of the initial purchasers named therein, relating to the senior notes offering. Pursuant to the purchase agreement, LPL Holdings will issue and sell $400 million aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes due 2025 bearing interest at a rate of 5.750% at an issuance price of 103.0% of their aggregate principal amount plus accrued interest from September 15, 2017. The notes will be issued as an add-on to the $500 million aggregate principal amount of 5.750% senior notes due 2025 that were issued by LPL Holdings on March 10, 2017. The add-on notes will carry a yield to worst of 5.115%. The consummation of the notes offering is subject to customary conditions.

LPL Holdings intends to use the net proceeds from the offering of the notes for general corporate purposes, including to pay down $200 million of its term loan B, to fund a contingent payment (if any such amount becomes payable) and other costs in connection with the previously announced acquisition of certain assets and rights from National Planning Holdings, Inc. and its four broker-dealer subsidiaries, and to pay fees and expenses related to the offering of the notes. After giving effect to the intended pay down of a portion of its term loan B, LPL Holdings’ aggregate indebtedness as of June 30, 2017 would have increased by $200 million to approximately $2,400 million.
